

University of Groningen

Assisted Dying in Europe

McCann, Adam

IMPORTANT NOTE: You are advised to consult the publisher's version (publisher's PDF) if you wish to cite from it. Please check the document version below.

Document Version

Publisher's PDF, also known as Version of record

Publication date:

2016

Link to publication in University of Groningen/UMCG research database

Citation for published version (APA):

McCann, A. (2016). Assisted Dying in Europe: A comparative law and governance analysis of four national and two supranational systems. [Thesis fully internal (DIV), University of Groningen]. University of Groningen.

Copyright

Other than for strictly personal use, it is not permitted to download or to forward/distribute the text or part of it without the consent of the author(s) and/or copyright holder(s), unless the work is under an open content license (like Creative Commons).

The publication may also be distributed here under the terms of Article 25fa of the Dutch Copyright Act, indicated by the "Taverne" license. More information can be found on the University of Groningen website: <https://www.rug.nl/library/open-access/self-archiving-pure/taverne-amendment>.

Take-down policy

If you believe that this document breaches copyright please contact us providing details, and we will remove access to the work immediately and investigate your claim.

Downloaded from the University of Groningen/UMCG research database (Pure): <http://www.rug.nl/research/portal>. For technical reasons the number of authors shown on this cover page is limited to 10 maximum.

STELLINGEN

Behorende bij het proefschrift

Assisted Dying in Europe: A comparative law and governance analysis of four national and two supranational systems

van Adam McCann

1. If one begins with a question supported by a certain body of theory, the methodology will follow suit.
2. The law on morality policies should hinge on two types of incremental arguments: first principle-based arguments, and then control-based arguments.
3. The 'politicization of the law' on morality policies demands the reciprocal 'juridification of politics.'
4. EU economic mobility may be understood as a means not only to extend democracy, but to enhance democracy.
5. A bifurcated approach to fundamental rights is simply pragmatic in understanding and weighing competing values.
6. We are not afraid of death; we just don't want to be there when it happens (inspired by Woody Allen).